

Kansas Republican Party Constitution

Adopted January 30, 2010

ARTICLE I: Name

The name of this organization shall be the “Kansas Republican Party”.

ARTICLE II: Purpose

The purpose of the Kansas Republican Party shall be to coordinate and unite the activities of Republicans in Kansas through recognized city, county, district, and state committees under a central, statewide organization and serve as the official state affiliate of the Republican National Committee. The Kansas Republican Party is dedicated to the advancement of Republican candidates, policies and principles and shall aid in every way possible the Republican nominees selected in each partisan primary. The Kansas Republican Party seeks to advance Republican principles and beliefs by seeing them enacted as sound public policy. The Republican Party works to ensure its growth through voter registration and by attracting disenfranchised members of other political parties.

ARTICLE III: Primary Elections

It shall be the policy of the Kansas Republican Party that Republican primary elections shall remain closed. Participation in the primary election shall be limited to registered Republican voters.

ARTICLE IV: County Organization

(A) The county central committee shall be composed of all Republican precinct committeemen and committeewomen elected at the most recent August primary election, plus precinct committeemen and committeewomen appointed by the county chair to fill vacancies. No incumbent member shall lose his or her office prior to the next succeeding August primary election by reason of consolidation of precincts or changes in precinct boundaries.

(B) The incumbent county chair shall call a meeting of the county central committee for the purpose of reorganizing the committee and electing new officers to take office immediately. Such meeting shall take place between the August primary election and fourteen (14) days following the November general election.

(C) A majority of the county central committee members elected at the August primary election may require a meeting of the committee to be held on a date selected by the majority, by making written petition to the county chair not later than September 10th and not less than ten (10) days prior to the selected meeting date. Notice of such meeting shall be given within five (5) calendar days of receipt by the chair of sufficient petitions to evidence such a majority. At such meeting it shall be in order to reorganize the committee by electing new officers to take office immediately. Proxies shall be permitted for voting purposes at county central committee meetings, but only if carried by a qualified Republican elector from the absent member's precinct. The signature on the proxy of the absent member shall be acknowledged before a notary public.

(D) At any meeting of the county central committee at which it shall be in order to reorganize, it shall also be in order to elect that county's members and alternate members of the congressional district committee. If the reorganization meeting is held and no election of congressional district committee members is held, then it shall be in order to hold such election at any other meeting of the county central committee, no later than fourteen (14) days after the general election, upon notice stating that such election will be held. If no formal meeting is held to select congressional district committee members and alternate members, they will not be allowed to participate in congressional district committee meetings.

(E) If notice of a meeting required by this Constitution is not given in timely fashion by the chair, the vice chair may give such notice. In the event that the county chair or vice chair neglects to give notice of a meeting recognized by this rule, any member qualified to vote at a meeting may request the congressional district chair to give such notice.

(F) Notice requirements for meetings of the county central committee may be established by Bylaw.

(G) Members of the county central committee appointed by the county chair since the last August primary but prior to the meeting at which the committee reorganizes, shall not be entitled to vote at that meeting.

(H) The officers of the county central committee shall include a chair, vice chair, secretary and treasurer. It shall not be necessary for any of the officers of the committee to be a central committee member. One person may hold both the offices of secretary and treasurer.

ARTICLE V: Congressional District Committees

(A) Each congressional district committee shall be composed of: (i) the county chair and vice chair of each county in the district and (ii) two additional members from each county, to be elected by each of the county central committees in the district after each August primary election, but not later than fourteen (14) days after the general election, for each 1,000 votes or major fraction thereof in excess of 1,500 votes cast in the county by Republican Party voters for all Republican candidates for the statewide office receiving the highest statewide party vote at the preceding August primary election. The state party chair will provide district and county chairs with the election results of the statewide office being used and the number of delegate members allowed each county, no later than September 15th following the August primary. For purposes of this section, statewide includes races for U.S. Senate. The term of members and alternate members of the district committee shall commence on the 15th day following the November general election or when elected, whichever is later and end on the 14th day following the next November general election or on the election of the new delegates, whichever is later. Changes in apportionment of membership shall be effective on the 15th day following the November general election. In the event that no statewide office was up for election in the immediately preceding August primary election, that apportionment shall be based on the votes cast in the last August primary election in which a statewide office was up for election. In the event a county is partly in each of two or more congressional district, the county chair and vice chair shall be members of each congressional district committee and their alternates, alternate members of each congressional district committee. The county's entitlement to additional members shall be computed for the county as a whole, but allocated separately for each such district as specified on the basis of the votes cast by Republican voters in each district at such primary election. Additional members of each congressional district committee shall be elected by the precinct committeemen and committeewomen from their congressional district. At the time a reorganizational meeting is called, the incumbent congressional district chair shall also provide a copy of the proposed rules governing such meeting to all persons qualified to vote at such meeting.

(B) When the additional members are chosen, the same number of alternates shall also be chosen. No district committee member shall be represented by proxy. Additionally, two alternates shall be chosen, one for the chair and one for the vice chair of each county. Unless otherwise elected in accordance with these rules the automatic alternates shall be the elected secretary and elected treasurer of the county committee. Alternate members shall be listed by descending vote number and shall be appointed as needed by the chair or vice chair to fill vacancies of delegates who are absent at the time of the meeting.

(C) Each congressional district committee shall organize by electing a chair, vice chair, a secretary, and a treasurer. It shall not be necessary for an officer of the district committee to be a member of the district committee. A meeting for such purpose shall be called by the congressional district chair, or if the chair fails to do so for any reason by the congressional district vice chair. Such meeting shall be held within the district not earlier than December 1st of each even-numbered year and not later than the second Saturday in January of the following year.

(D) Notice requirements for district committee meetings may be established by Bylaw.

(E) In the event of reapportionment of any congressional district, the state chair may call a meeting of all county chairs and vice chairs of counties located in whole or in part within the new congressional district and all persons residing within the newly constituted congressional district who were previously members of any Kansas congressional district committee. In the event of reapportionment under the circumstances where the total number of Kansas congressional seats has changed, the state chair shall call such a meeting for all newly constituted districts. Such meeting shall organize a new congressional district committee and elect officers for such committee. Previously elected alternate members who reside in a new congressional district may be reassigned by the appropriate county chair to replace an absent member in the new congressional district in the same manner as stated in Article V(B) above.

(F) In the absence of a congressional district committee rule to the contrary, a congressional district convention (as that phrase is used in K.S.A. 25-3504) shall consist of the congressional district committee.

ARTICLE VI: State Committee

(A) The policy of the Kansas Republican Party shall be determined by the state committee.

(B) The state committee shall consist of:

- 37 members representing each congressional district, to be elected as provided in VI(D) below;
- All elected officers of the state committee;
- The chair and vice chair of each congressional district committee;
- The chair of the Black Republican Council;
- The president of the Kansas Federation of Republican Women;
- The chair of the Kansas Young Republicans;
- The chair of the Kansas Hispanic Republican Council;
- The President of the Kansas Federation of College Republicans

- The national committeeman and national committeewoman; and, as to those persons affiliated with the Republican Party, the following:
 - o The President of the Senate or a senator designated by the President;
 - o The majority leader of the Senate, or a senator designated by the majority leader;
 - o The Speaker of the House of Representatives or a member of the House designated by the Speaker;
 - o The majority leader of the House of Representatives or a member of the House designated by the majority leader;
 - o The minority leader of each Chamber or a member of the same Chamber designated by such minority leader;
 - o The Governor or his or her designee;
 - o Each United States Senator or his or her designee;
 - o Each U.S. Congressman or his or her designee;
 - o The State Treasurer or his or her designee;
 - o The Insurance Commissioner or his or her designee;
 - o The Attorney General or his or her designee;
 - o The Secretary of State or his or her designee.

No proxies shall be recognized. 37 alternate members shall also be elected at the same meeting as the 37 members. In the event that a member is absent from such a meeting, it shall be the duty of the congressional district chair to appoint a replacement from among those alternate members present but not otherwise voting who are from the same congressional district (with first preference to an alternate member who is from or the same subdivision of the congressional district if the congressional district is subdivided pursuant to Article VI(D)).

(C) Reapportionment of congressional districts and/or the reorganization of congressional district committees resulting therefrom shall not alter the membership of the state committee or the executive committee until the state committee reorganizes or the date established pursuant to Article VI(E) below.

(D) Each congressional district committee shall elect 37 members and 37 alternate members of the state committee at large within the congressional district; provided, that in those instances where the largest county (or portion thereof in the district), by membership on the congressional district committee, has more than 30% of the members of the congressional district committee, the members of the congressional district committee from that county present and voting at the meeting of the district committee shall elect a proportionate share of the state committee members, such proportionate share to be determined by multiplying 2 by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of that county's membership on the congressional district committee and the denominator of which is the entire membership of the congressional district committee. When the application of such fraction to the number 37 results in other than a whole number, such number shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number. The members of the congressional district committee representing the other counties shall elect the remainder of the state committee members unless the next largest county (or portion thereof) would constitute more than 50% of the remaining congressional district committee membership, in which case the members of the congressional district committee from that second largest county shall elect its proportionate share of the 37, applying the rule set above. The remaining members of the congressional district committee shall then elect the remainder of the 37 members. Nothing herein shall prohibit members of the congressional district committee from one county electing persons from another county to be on the state committee.

(E) The term of all 37 members and 37 alternate members representing congressional districts on the state committee shall commence as of the date of the organizational meeting of such committee, and shall end on the day immediately preceding the next organizational meeting (approximately 2 years later). Notice of the exact day, time of day, and place of said organizational meeting shall be given in writing by the state chair not less than thirty (30) days prior to the meeting date, but in the absence of such notice shall be at 2:00 p.m., in Topeka, Kansas, on the last Saturday of the January next following a November general election. At such meeting, the state committee shall elect a chair, a vice chair, a secretary, and a treasurer. Failure to satisfy the notice requirement shall not affect the validity of actions taken at the organizational meeting.

(F) Notice requirements and regulations relating to the call of state committee meetings may be established by Bylaw.

ARTICLE VII: State Committee Officers

(A) The State Committee Officers shall consist of Chair, Vice-Chair, Treasurer, Secretary, National Committeeman, and National Committeewoman.

(B) The state chair, with the advice and consent of any executive committee established by Bylaw, may appoint an executive director who shall be a nonvoting officer of the state committee, assign duties and responsibilities and establish compensation. The executive director shall hold his or her position at the pleasure of the state chair, and once approved, the executive director's compensation shall not be reduced by the executive committee without the consent of the state chair.

(C) Any provision relating to officers of the state committee, not inconsistent with this Constitution, may be established by Bylaw.

ARTICLE VIII: Gender

In each instance, a chair and a vice chair shall be of the opposite sex. Any person elected state chair, congressional district chair, or county chair may, at such person's option, choose to be referred to by the title "Chairman," "Chairwoman," or "Chair," as appropriate. A similar designation may be made by any vice chair.

ARTICLE IX: Quorum

Quorum requirements may be set by Bylaw.

ARTICLE X: Vacancies

(A) In the event of a vacancy in any elected office, the committee which elects that office in the ordinary course shall elect a successor for the unexpired term. In the case of a vacancy in the office of a chair, the vice chair of the same committee shall immediately and automatically assume the title and duties of the chair until the committee shall elect a successor. In the case of a vacancy in the office of a treasurer or secretary, the remaining secretary or treasurer of the same committee shall immediately and automatically assume the title and duties of the vacant office until the committee shall elect a successor.

(B) In the case of a vacancy in the office of a state committee member representing one of the congressional district committees, the alternate member of the same committee shall immediately and automatically assume the title and duties of the member until the congressional district committee shall elect a successor.

The state committee may adopt Bylaws not inconsistent with the Constitution. However, this Constitution may not be amended, supplemented, superseded, nor the terms thereof defined or interpreted, by such Bylaws, or district committee constitution or bylaws or county central committee constitution or bylaws, except where explicitly permitted by this Constitution. All references herein to "Bylaw" shall mean the Bylaws adopted by the state committee.

ARTICLE XII: Removal of Party Officers

(A) Any elected or appointed officer or member of the state committee, excepting the executive director, may be removed from office by a vote of two-thirds of all members, whether present or not, of the state committee, provided that written petition (whether one or more) has been made by one-half (1/2) of the members of the state committee. The petition(s) shall be submitted to the State Party office and verified by the Chair or Secretary of the State Committee. Once the petitions have been verified, a meeting of the State Committee shall be called within thirty (30) days. The action of the state committee shall be final.

(B) Any officer of a Congressional District Committee, officer of a City Party Committee, or officer of a County Central Committee may be removed from office by a vote of two-thirds of all members, whether present or not, of the committee which elected them, provided that written petition (whether one or more) has been made by one-half (1/2) of the members of the committee. The petition(s) shall be submitted to the State Party office and verified by the Chair or Secretary of the committee for which the individual is an officer. Once the petitions have been verified, a meeting of the committee shall be called within thirty (30) days. If said action is reviewed by the State Committee, the action of the State Committee shall be final.

(C) The treasurer of a Congressional District Committee, treasurer of a City Party Committee, or treasurer of a County Central Committee may be removed from office by unanimous vote of the remaining committee officers of the committee which elected them when a treasurer is negligent in their duties required by Kansas law. The results of such vote shall be submitted to the State Party office and verified by the Chair or Secretary of the State Committee. Once the vote has been verified, the Chair of the electing committee will serve as acting treasurer until the electing committee meets, at which time a new treasurer shall be elected.

ARTICLE XIII: Party Loyalty

(A) The Kansas Republican Party is dedicated to the promotion of Republican policies, candidates and principles. The members of its governing bodies defined in this Constitution (Article IV, V, VI) are charged with promoting these goals. Therefore, any individual with voting rights on any Party committee defined in this Constitution, who by any documented public action donates, contributes, or endorses a candidate other than the Republican nominee in a contested, partisan campaign for public office in the state of Kansas, shall forfeit their voting rights and membership on the committee(s) on which they serve. This shall not, in any way, restrict rights conferred on elected officials or precinct committeemen/women as defined in Kansas statute.

(B) A four-fifths (80%) affirmative vote by the Loyalty Committee, comprised of the Chair of the Kansas Republican Party and the Chair of each Congressional District Committee, shall determine if members of any governing bodies have violated this section. The decision of the Loyalty Committee and the resulting forfeiture of membership and voting rights on governing committees shall be effective immediately upon signed, written notification sent by first class postage to the last known address of the individual and Chair of each committee(s) of which the person is a member.

(D) A four-fifths (80%) affirmative vote by the Loyalty Committee, comprised of the Chair of the Kansas Republican Party and the Chair of each Congressional District Committee, shall determine if members of any governing bodies have violated this section. The decision of the Loyalty Committee and the resulting forfeiture of membership and voting rights on governing committees shall be effective immediately upon signed, written notification sent by first class postage to the last known address of the individual and all members of each committee of which the individual is an officer. The committee(s) affected will be required to elect a new individual to the vacant position pursuant to Article X.

(E) Any member who feels wrongfully sanctioned by the Loyalty Committee may appeal the decision of the Loyalty Committee to the Kansas Republican Party Executive Committee (as defined by Article 5 of the Bylaws of the Kansas Republican Party). A two-thirds vote of all members, whether present or not, to reinstate the disciplined member shall override the ruling of the Loyalty Committee. If requested by the member, action by the Executive Committee must occur within five (5) calendar days of the appeal being received by the State Chair sent by fax, verified e-mail or first-class mail to the State Party office.

(F) Such forfeiture shall last for the entirety of the person's original elected term of office.

ARTICLE XIV: Amendments

(A) Article III and Article XIV(A) of this Constitution may be amended only by a four-fifths (80%) vote of state committee members whether present or not, as well as four-fifths (80%) approval of each delegation representing each congressional district and four-fifths (80%) of the state executive committee, provided that any proposed amendments shall be submitted by the sponsoring member to all members of the state committee not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting at which such amendment is offered.
